MEMORANDUM FOR: Associate Deputy Director for Intelligence

SUBJECT : Request to Present Two Lectures at a
Columbia University Seminar

1. I request permission to present two lectures at Columbia University on 3 and 4 December. The subject will be Soviet foreign policy decision-making. The invitation to present these lectures was extended to me by Professor Marshall D. Shulman of Columbia University.

2. The first lecture will be given to the University Seminar on Communism. The audience will include faculty members from Columbia and area universities, senior fellows of the Russian Institute, and the Institute on International Change. Two foreign nationals will also attend--Professor Alec Nove of Glasgow University and Professor Richard Lowenthal of the Free University of Berlin. The second lecture will be given to an upper-level undergraduate/graduate course on Soviet foreign relations taught by Professor Shulman.

3. It is understood that I will not discuss classified information nor will I touch on any aspect of US policy. I will be identified as a CIA employee.
